If one party refuses to attend the class, that party is subject to being held in contempt of court.

You may choose the session that best fits your schedule. You do not have to attend the same session as your child's other parent.

The sessions are educational, highlighting the most common situations experienced by children who do not live with both parents at the same time. A better, less stressful method for handling each situation is explained and modeled for parents.

The goals are to help sensitize parents to their children's distress, and to learn techniques to avoid putting the children in the middle.

Very truly yours,
